STAIRS

Steel, Glass, Timber....

From steel, glass, timber and stone, Vonka Stairs has created stunning stairs for both residential and commercial applications.

Each set of stairs reflects the individual character of its setting — no two stairs look alike.

Form And Structure

Vonka's stair designs interact with light and their environment to produce forms that are both visually arresting and structurally sound.

Touch Of Elegance

Do you want to add a touch of elegance to your home with a classic wooden staircase? Or do you prefer a modern, attractive floating staircase? We at Vonka Stairs stay for a complete range of solutions.

STAIRS

Helical And Curved

A curved staircase, often referred to as a helical staircase leads users upstairs in a graceful flowing arc. Unlike spiral staircases, a curved staircase doesn't require a fixed central column

Steel Staircases

Steel stairs give your room elegance, modernity and lightness. Especially when combined with wood the steel stair is an elegant access.
